

2019 Flower Show Dates and Ticket Information

The 2019 PHS Philadelphia Flower Show, “Flower Power,” pays tribute to the enormous impact of flowers on our lives. New features this year include a weekday ticket option, the best value for visitors, and exclusive floral design workshops and demonstrations led by past and present competitors from the FTD World Cup.

Each ticket to the Philadelphia Flower Show supports PHS’s mission to connect people with horticulture and work together to create beautiful, healthy and sustainable communities. Visitors can also sponsor a child’s visit to the Show by making a $10 donation at the point of purchase. Through this effort, school-age children from the Greater Philadelphia area can experience the powerful connection between plants and people at the Show and begin to develop their own love for gardening and nature.
